REVISION FOR THE 1ST MID-TERM TEST
TEST 2

Read the following leaflet/notice and choose the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 1 to 6.

Simplify Your Life with Minimalist Living

Are you ready to embrace a simpler, more sustainable lifestyle? Minimalist living is a growing trend that focuses on reducing clutter, downsizing, and (1) _____ eco-friendly practices. By choosing fewer possessions and smaller spaces, you can make a significant impact (2) _____ both your personal well-being and the environment.

Downsize Your Space: Less is More

Choosing smaller living spaces—whether it's a compact home or apartment—can significantly (3) _____. It uses fewer materials and energy, making it an eco-friendly choice. (4)_____, the tradeoff is limited space, which can be a challenge for (5) _____ used to larger homes.

Declutter for Peace of Mind

A key part of minimalist living is decluttering your home. Letting go of items you no longer need helps reduce waste and creates a more peaceful environment. It's not always easy, but thinking carefully about what to keep can lead to greater happiness and a more organized life.

Tiny Homes: Small, Sustainable, and Smart

Tiny homes offer a creative way to live with less. These eco-friendly homes are cost-effective and energy-efficient but require adjustments to small living spaces.

Make the change today—embrace minimalist living and create _____ (6) more sustainable, stress-free future!

Question 1: A.

A. adopting B.adapting C.observing D.evaluating

Question 2: A.A.on B.in C. at D. to

Question 3: .

A. reduce your carbon footprint B. reduce your footprint carbon

C. your carbon footprint reduce D. your reduce carbon footprint

Question 4: A. However B. Although C. Because D. Unless

Question 5: AA. those B. they C. them D. these

Question 6: A. a B. an C. the D. no article

Choose the best arrangement of utterances or sentences to make a meaningful exchange or text in each of the following questions

Question 7.

a. Lisa: I agree completely. Which part of his story impresses you most?
b. Tom: He fought for justice and equality for so many years without giving up.
c. Tom: I was watching a documentary on Nelson Mandela; his life is incredible.

A. b - a - c B. c - b - a C. c - a - b D. b - c - a Question 8.

a. Sarah: Just fruit and vegetable scraps, and even coffee grounds. Nothing too crazy.
b. Mike: That's cool! What kinds of things can you actually put in there?
c. Sarah: No, not at all! As long as you add some dry leaves or cardboard, it stays balanced.
d. Sarah: So, I started composting food waste at home. It's surprisingly easy.
e. Mike: That sounds easy enough. Does it smell bad, though? I'm kind of worried about that.
A. a - e - b - d - c B. d - b - a - e - c
C. d - b - c - e - a D. a - e - c - d – b

Question 9.
Dear Volunteers,
a. Your hard work and commitment were truly essential to the success of the day.
b. We could not have achieved our goals without your dedicated support. Thank you once again for your generous gift of time and effort.
c. Your efforts, from the initial setup to the final cleanup, were handled with exceptional professionalism.
d. On behalf of the "Global Feast: Taste the World, Share the Joy" organizing committee, we wish to express our sincere gratitude for your invaluable contributions to our recent event.
e. The positive and welcoming atmosphere you created for all our guests was remarked upon by many, making the event a truly memorable experience.
We look forward to the possibility of working with you again in the future.
Sincerely,
The "Global Feast" Committee
A. d - b - a - c - e B. d - c - a - e - b
C. d - a - c - e - b D. d - e - c - a – b

Question 10.
a. Known as a great patriot, Phan Bội Châu's life was a long fight for his country's freedom.
b. Although his efforts did not lead to immediate independence, his ideas and courage had a lasting impact.
c. After a traditional education, he became a leader of the independence movement, traveling to find support from other Asian countries.
d. His goal was to unite Vietnamese people and raise a national army.
e. He taught that patriotism was not just a feeling, but an active fight for a better future.
A. c - a - e - d - b B. a - d - b - c - e
C. a - c - d - b - e D. c - a - e - b – d

Question 11.
a. This trend might reduce the use of traditional building materials and designs, leading to a loss of local architectural identity.
b. We see the same types of modern skyscrapers and shopping malls everywhere, which can make cities look less unique.
c. However, globalization also allows for the sharing of new and sustainable building techniques.
d. It can also create a renewed interest in preserving historical buildings, as they become a unique selling point for tourism.
e. Globalization often brings similar styles of architecture to major cities around the world.
A. b - a - d - e - c B. e - a - c - b - d
C. b - e - d - c - a D. e - b - a - c - d

Read the following passage and choose the best answer to each of the following questions

1. Singer Duc Phuc captivated both the audience and critics with his victory at the 2025 ‘Intervision’ music contest in Moscow. Performing the Vietnamese song “Phu Dong Thien Vuong” (Heavenly Prince of Phu Dong), his win garnered widespread attention from Russian media, including Ria Novosti, Regnum, and Lenta. Phuc, 28, was invited by Vietnam’s Ministry of Culture, Sports, and Tourism to participate in the contest. He first gained recognition in 2015 when he won "The Voice of Vietnam" and has since become known for his emotional ballads and compelling performances.

2. The Intervision Song Contest, initially organized by the International Radio and Television Organization (OIRT), was first held in Czechoslovakia from 1965 to 1968 and was later revived in Poland in the late 1970s. After a 40-year hiatus, the competition now attracts participants from countries such as Cuba, China, Egypt, the U.S., and Vietnam. Saudi Arabia is set to host next year’s event.

3. People’s Artist Igor Matvienko, one of the judges, praised Phuc’s performance as "excellent," highlighting its modern and dramatic appeal while incorporating traditional Vietnamese elements. Rossiyskaya Gazeta also acknowledged his impressive vocal range and emotional delivery. Columnist

Alexander Alekseev remarked that Phuc's performance stood out due to the thoughtful choice of melodies and costumes that reflected the beauty of Vietnamese culture.

4. Following the competition, Phuc shared that his chances were boosted by the generous gesture of Russia's contestant Shaman, who chose not to be scored, allowing other participants a better chance. Phuc also expressed plans to donate part of his prize to charity in Russia and to study the Russian language. He aims to compose a song in Russian and collaborate with local artists. His performance was widely praised on social media, with many describing it as a powerful representation of Vietnamese culture.

Question 12. The word garnered in paragraph 1 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

A. stayed connected B. went unnoticed

C. remained hidden D. became overwhelmed

Question 13. The word incorporating in paragraph 3 could be best replaced by _____.

A. generating B. enhancing C. supporting D. combining Question 14. The word his in paragraph 3 refers to _____.

A. Igor Matvienko's B. Alexander Alekseev's

C. Duc Phuc's D. Rossiyskaya Gazeta's

Question 15. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as an aspect for which Đức Phúc received praise in his performance in the passage?

A. Carefully chosen music and attire showcasing Vietnam's cultural heritage.

B. Contemporary dramatic presentation including elements of Vietnamese tradition.

C. Impressive singing skills with emotional and captivating performance.

D. Stage lighting and visual effects that were used during the performance.

Question 16. Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 4?

A. Numerous users on social media highly commended his performance for serving as a strong representation of Vietnamese culture.

B. Through a performance that meaningfully showcased Vietnamese culture, he received widespread praise on social media.

C. The performance was so well-received on social media that many called it a powerful representation of Vietnamese culture.

D. Numerous social media users consider his performance worthy of high praise for strongly representing Vietnamese culture.

Question 17. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

A. The initial participants of the contest all came from countries that were affiliated with the OIRT.

B. The Intervision Song Contest consists of at least two separate and distinct stages of activity.

C. The rules of the contest permit participants to voluntarily withdraw from the competition.

D. The contest's main judging criteria focus on effectively combining modern and traditional aspects.

Question 18. In which paragraph does the author mention Đuc Phuc's activities after his victory?

A. Paragraph 4. B. Paragraph 2. C. Paragraph 3. D. Paragraph 1.

Question 19. In which paragraph does the author mention the early stage of Đuc Phuc's artistic career?

A. Paragraph 3. B. Paragraph 4. C. Paragraph 1. D. Paragraph 2.

Read the following passage and choose the best answer to each of the following questions

1. Technology significantly influences how we communicate across cultures, helping bridge the gap between people from diverse backgrounds. One of the most important impacts of technology is its ability to overcome geographical and cultural boundaries. [I] Social media platforms, messaging apps, and video conferencing tools allow individuals to connect with others globally, fostering mutual understanding and cooperation. For instance, students can engage in virtual exchange programs, gaining firsthand knowledge of different cultures without the need to travel abroad.

2. Language is a vital component of intercultural communication. [II] Technology has greatly transformed language learning, making it more accessible and interactive. Applications such as Duolingo and Rosetta Stone offer engaging ways to learn new languages, while real-time translation tools like Google Translate facilitate communication between people who speak different languages, making cross-cultural conversations easier and more efficient. [III]

3. The internet is a vast resource that provides valuable information about various cultures. Websites, blogs, and online communities offer insights into cultural practices, traditions, and customs. This wealth of knowledge helps individuals develop a deeper understanding of other cultures, fostering empathy and reducing stereotypes. [IV]

4. In the business world, effective intercultural communication is crucial for success. Technology enables companies to operate globally, with remote teams collaborating across continents. Tools such as Slack, Microsoft Teams, and Zoom have become indispensable for managing projects and facilitating communication in virtual work environments. Moreover, an understanding of cultural differences can enhance business negotiations and partnerships, promoting trust and mutual respect.

5. While technology offers numerous advantages, it also brings challenges. Misunderstandings can occur due to differences in communication styles, nonverbal cues, and digital literacy. It is essential to be mindful of these differences and strive for clarity in all interactions. Furthermore, the digital divide remains a significant issue, as some regions lack access to advanced technologies, limiting their ability to fully engage in the global dialogue.

Question 20. Which of the following best summarises paragraph 1?

A. Digital tools enable global interaction, which breaks down cultural barriers and fosters exchange among diverse cultures.

B. Technology enables global communication, bridging cultural gaps and fostering understanding across diverse communities.

C. Online platforms foster cultural exchange, encouraging cooperation and mutual understanding among countries globally.

D. Social media platforms and video conferencing tools help individuals communicate, connect, and experience diverse cultures.

Question 21. The word it in paragraph 2 refers to _____.

A. language learning B. technology

C. knowledge D. intercultural communication

Question 22. The word facilitate in paragraph 2 could be best replaced by _____.

A. enhance B. invest C. enable D. engage Question 23. Where in the passage does the following sentence best fit?

For example, platforms like TED Talks present a wide range of speakers from different parts of the world, sharing their unique cultural perspectives and experiences.

A. [II] B. [III] C. [IV] D. [I]

Question 24. The word indispensable in paragraph 4 is OPPOSITE in meaning to _____.

A. frustrating B. unnecessary C. inflexible D. unreliable

Question 25. Which of the following is NOT mentioned as one of the impacts of technology in the passage?

A. Allowing companies to operate internationally.

B. Breaking down distance and cultural boundaries.

C. Developing artificial intelligence and machine learning.

D. Promoting dialogue among diverse cultural groups.

Question 26. Which of the following best paraphrases the underlined sentence in paragraph 5?

A. Communication breakdown can arise from differing verbal and nonverbal habits, resulting in varied digital literacy levels.

B. If people have different approaches to communication and technology, misunderstandings and confusion can easily occur.

C. Variations in nonverbal communication and technological skills among individuals can often lead to misunderstandings.

D. The occurrence of misunderstandings can be caused by differences in speaking, nonverbal cues, or digital competence.

Question 27. Which of the following is TRUE according to the passage?

A. Online content creators play a crucial role in actively promoting and sharing cultural heritage globally.

B. The success of a global business is directly tied to its ability to communicate effectively across cultures.

C. Despite technological advances, the absence of a common language hinders intercultural communication.

D. Businesses failing to adapt to new communication technologies will become outdated and uncompetitive.

Question 28. Which of the following can be inferred from the passage?

A. Technology can sometimes create more communication problems than it solves if used incorrectly.

B. In today's world, a person's identity is largely shaped and influenced by their global connections.

C. The development of technology has added unresolved burdens that existed in the pre-digital world.

D. Technology is changing the roles of language professionals, such as translators and interpreters.

Question 29. Which of the following best summarises the passage?
A. The impact of technology on intercultural communication is complex and challenging, as it connects people globally while giving rise to issues related to digital literacy and unequal access.
B. By bridging cultural gaps, supporting language learning, promoting cultural exchange, and enabling global collaboration, technology both offers benefits and poses new challenges for communication.
C. Technology facilitates global understanding through innovative tools while simultaneously creating new challenges, such as the digital divide and differences in cultural practices.
D. Technology connects people across cultures, aids language learning, offers cultural insights, supports international business, yet may cause misunderstandings and digital inequality.

Read the following passage and choose the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 30 to 34.

As a leader, it is highly probable that your team is discussing your leadership, how you are managing changes, and the organisation itself. (30) _____. People naturally respond emotionally to change, and without clear and well-communicated messages from leadership, it is common for individuals to create their own narratives.

(31) _____, leaders can take control by creating a coherent and authentic 'change story.' Through a carefully crafted narrative, leaders can influence the emotions and thoughts of their audience, guiding them in the direction the organisation is moving. (32) _____, such as a shift in culture, new leadership, or organisational restructuring.

Examples of effective storytelling in leadership include Barack Obama's "Fired up, ready to go" speech, (33) _____. Similarly, Susan Cain's TED Talk promotes the value of introverts, while Malala Yousafzai's personal story of survival and activism for girls' rights has inspired people globally.

Research supports the effectiveness of storytelling. Paul J. Zak's studies suggest that emotionally engaging stories release oxytocin, increasing empathy and trust. While you may not have the natural charisma of figures like Obama or Malala, (34) _____.

Question 30: A.

A. While you may not prefer this, it is happening nonetheless

B.Your lack of enthusiasm that doesn't prevent this from happening

C.Your disinclination doesn't alter so that this is in progress

D.This is an unavoidable fact as long as you feel about it

Question 31: A.

A. Rather than allowing these informal stories to shape perceptions

B.Leaders prevent informal tales from controlling people's perceptions

C.In order for leaders to counter the influence of informal stories

D.It is letting unconfirmed accounts shape how people perceive the situation

Question 32: A.

A. A strong story has the power to inspire action, build trust, and encourage individuals to share the message about important changes

B.A strong and meaningful story that often inspires people into action, builds trust, and encourages the sharing of change messages

C.The primary goal is to motivate action, foster trust, and prompt individuals to spread the message about significant changes

D.It is a well-crafted story which sparks action, fosters trust, and persuades individuals to communicate the message about key transformations

Question 33: A.

A. which starts with a personal moment and ends with a collective call to action

B.began with a personal reflection and culminated in a collective mobilization

C. it opens with a personal touch and ends by urging everyone to take a stand together

D. by starting with a personal tale and concluding with a shared call to action

Question 34: A.

A. crafting an authentic story allows you to influence change and inspire support within your organisation

B.thanks to an inspiring story, you significantly help your organisation to transform and grow successfully

C.you create such an authentic and powerful story that it inspires growth and transforms your organization

D.making an authentic story which gives you the power to influence shifts and builds support internally

Read the following leaflet/notice and choose the option that best fits each of the numbered blanks from 35 to 40.

☆ Celebrate Global Heritage – Embrace Cultural Diversity!

Explore the world's rich cultural heritage and (35) _____ how celebrating diversity can bring people closer together. In today's world, understanding different cultures (36) _____ unity and strengthens our global community.

At Heritage Celebrations, we invite you to get involved in (37) _____ the unique traditions, art, and practices of various cultures. Every culture (38) _____something special, from art and music to customs and cuisine. By appreciating these differences, we open up new opportunities for connection and mutual respect.

Through our events and exhibits, you can dig into the stories behind different cultural practices and learn how they (39) _____ the world we live in. People often feel inspired after these experiences, (40) _____ encourages them to explore more about global traditions.

Why Celebrate Cultural Heritage?

☆ Build Connections: Encourage understanding and friendships across cultures.

☆ Protect Traditions: Help preserve important cultural customs for future generations.

☆ Grow in Respect: Appreciate the beauty of cultural diversity and its contributions to society.

Join us today and celebrate the world's diverse heritage for a more unified and harmonious future!

Question 35.

A. make up B. find out C. carry out D. take over

Question 36.

A. restores B. enlarges C. fosters D. adapts

Question 37.

A. to discover B. discovering C. discovered D. discover

Question 38.

A. offers B. offered C. will offer D. was offering

Question 39.

A. make B. form C. shape D. create

Question 40.

A. that B. which C. who D. it

A.